EAGLES FLY TO THE INSURANCE CAPITAL OF THE WORLD!

For the first time, Eagle is landing in Hartford, CT, appropriately known as “the insurance capital of the world.” In a long overdue visit, our Fall Meeting is set in Hartford for October 18-19, 2018. Our educational conference promises to be especially interesting and topical for claims professionals, adjusters and lawyers.

As a special treat, Eagle and its guests will be welcomed by Hartford’s mayor, the Honorable Luke Bronin, who will kick off our conference. In a city known for having the oldest continually published newspaper in America (Hartford Courant, since October 29, 1764) and where the first law book containing the federal laws of the country was published in 1791), the role of lawyers, insurers and an educated society have always been recognized and we are especially honored to have the Mayor visit with us during our conference.

The theme of the Fall Meeting Conference is “Insurance Claims: Some are More Complicated Than Others.”

Our panels will address important issues in and offer valuable strategies in:

Evaluating and trying sex and gender-related claims and defending lawsuits in the #MeToo era;

Successfully navigating the ethical pitfalls encountered in handling and defending claims, including what insurers can and cannot expect from panel counsel;

Dealing with the thorny issue of adjuster professional liability and how it can be prevented; and

Coping with and effectively managing your experts.

Adjuster Continuing Education Credits are pending for Florida and Texas
Legal Continuing Education Credits are pending for Connecticut, Illinois and Wisconsin
