THE CLAIMS WORLD IS CHANGING, ARE YOU READY?

MAY 8, 2024

OMNI HOTEL AT THE BATTERY

2625 Circle 75 Parkway
ATLANTA, GEORGIA 30339

The Eagles are landing in Atlanta May 8th for an afternoon of discussion on timely and interesting topics relating to the changing world of Claims. Following the seminar, we will make our way outside for a reception followed by a short walk to Braves Stadium where we'll have our own private area to mingle and munch and watch the Atlanta Braves take on the Boston Red Sox!

The afternoon seminar will highlight timely and interesting topics relating to the changing world of Claims.

A.I. and How it Impacts Claims, Adjusting and Litigation: Heard of ChatGPT, ChatBot, or Google Assistant? What are these programs, who uses them and are they playing a role in claims and litigation? Our panel will discuss how these programs, and others, are currently being used in the Claims World and how we can be prepared for their increased use in the years to come.

Generational Differences in the Practice of Law, Claims Adjusting and Claims Management: Flexible office schedules, bring your dog to work days and email and text replacing phone calls and face to face meetings. Our panel will discuss the generational differences in the Claims World, how to successfully navigate these differences and how to utilize these differences for successful claims management and litigation.

Excess Carrier Issues and Nuclear Verdicts: Welcome to Georgia: one of the worst judicial hellholes in recent years. Nuclear Verdicts in our state have certainly contributed to this poor reputation. Our panel will discuss specific concerns of excess carriers particularly in light of recent nuclear verdicts in Georgia and beyond.

Training the New Generation of Claims Adjusters on Investigations and How Retained Counsel Can Help: The Claims world is experiencing unprecedented demand for people to fill adjuster roles and a new generation of professionals is being recruited to fill this demand. We all know there is no substitute for a thorough investigation into a claim. However, the art of a thorough investigation is not something most inexperienced adjusters can learn from a course or textbook. Our panel will discuss the skills, tips and strategies for conducting a solid investigation that may just help shorten the life of your claim.
